An Educational Outreach Workshop

Watercolor Workshop

with Susan Laansma Pollins

October 21, 2017, from 2:00 to 4:00 pm - Monroeville Public Library Adults (ages 13 and older) - in the MPL Program Room.

Jump In - the Water's Fine!! Sue Pollins encourages each student to develop a "New" way of seeing to create a unique view the art through the process of watercolor painting.

Experienced and beginning participants will follow Sue as she shares clear instructions, demonstrations, and insights during her class session.

This accomplished artist has exhibited as a featured artist in numerous regional and national juried shows and has gained numerous distinctions, including Artist of the Year in Greensburg, PA and at Touchstone Center, as well as the Heart and Soul Award of Merit for her work with Westmoreland Museum of American Art.

There is NO charge for instruction. All materials are provided!

There is a $10 fee for the materials; fee waived for MAC Members!
